October Meeting

2.00 pm Sunday 4 October 2020

Film "The Star and the Sand"

The film covers the story of the El Shatt camps set up in the Sinai Desert in January 1944 to accommodate Yugoslav refuges from the Nazi counter-offensive against Tito. It was filmed by a British film crew and has an English commentary. The film is 20 minutes long, but conveys volumes in those minutes. This footage is a glimpse back into history. Highly recommended viewing. This afternoon DG&H Society meeting will go ahead at the Alert Level 1.

Due to renovations in the Museum and Archives all Friday night openings will be closed up until Open Day on Sunday 15 November.

Warm greetings to everyone

The restrictions we have had to follow have once again made it impossible to carry on our scheduled programme of events on the original dates planned for. Some events are deferred until later in the year, or even next year. Planning has been very difficult when we are unsure of what restrictions we must adhere to and to anticipate what Covid level we will be on at a particular date. We must also take into account the time for preparation, especially around catering preparation and folklore practices to be ready for performances.
After careful consideration, the Events and Folklore teams have decided on dates which are included in this Novosti. Of course all required safety standards will be strictly adhered to.
We are looking forward to resuming meals and bar services on Friday 11th September. Please use the Covid tracing App or use the sign in register which will be supervised by our overseer, Zel.
Contactless hand sanitisers are situated throughout the club and foyer.
Our members safety is a priority. However we must be hopeful that we will be up and running with social events and folklore classes as soon as permitted. Our folklore managers are communicating regularly with all tutors and students to keep them informed.
It's disappointing that our 90th year anniversary has been so disrupted by the Covid pandemic, but we are hopeful we can come together to hold events later in the year and next year, to continue to celebrate the long and proud history of our club.
Look forward to seeing many of you back in our Members Lounge on Fridays, folklore classes resuming, the Genealogical and Historical team resuming activities and to your continuing support of upcoming events.

Keep safe and look after each other
Kind regards,
Dorothy Shale
