BEREAVEMENTS

OSMR TNICE

Our condolences are extended to those members who have recently lost loved ones, both here and overseas.

Dean Bilcich: Dean was a valued member of our youth committee over 20 years ago. He was hardworking, passionate and always quick with a smile.

Kruno Vitasovich: From the day Life Member Kruno arrived in Auckland N.Z. in the late 50's he was an active member of the society. His home was open to members each year for Traditional Dalmatian Barbeques, and latterly the Wine and Rakija Awards. He regularly voiced his opinion at Members Meetings; recited his original poems and sang at concerts; created sculptures and filmed many club occasions. A supporter, mentor, passionate and charismatic member of our Society.

Kata Grbavac: A dear, kind and generous woman who was a friend to many in the Society who loved all aspects of club life.

Our sympathies go to all their families

We have a busy time ahead with something for everybody

We had a very enjoyable evening on Saturday 10th March at Jadranska Vecer. Our members and friends enjoyed the performance of our guest artist Alen Slavica who made a special trip over for this evening. Great food was also enjoyed. Thanks to the Tarara Folklore Ensemble and their supporters for the great effort, and to Joe and Tamara Ujdur for hosting Alen.

We also had an excellent afternoon on Sunday 18 February to celebrate the contributions of the late Ivy Cibilich to our Society. A wonderful high tea was enjoyed by all, along with entertainment from our members. Donations received have gone towards the purchase of a new piano for the ballroom which will have a plaque with Ivy's name. Special thanks to our Ladies Committee for organizing this special event and for financing the balance of the cost of the piano.

In this newsletter you can read about the wide range of exciting events coming up over the next few months, I am sure there is something there for everybody! I have also written an article outlining the plans for our Trip Home 2018. Hopefully many of you will be able to join in with us at some of the events. I have also listed where we are staying if you are interested in making bookings at the same place.

Robert Blucher
President

Pred nama je vrijeme ispunjeno raznim događajima u kojima ce svatko pronaci ponesto za sebe.

10tog ozujka u Klubu se održala Jadranska Vecer. Članovi Kluba i prijatelji uzivali su u nastupu naseg gosta i umjetnika Alena Slavice, koji je doputovao specijalno za tu priliku, te u vrlo dobroj večeri. Zahvaljujem se Tarara folklornoj grupi i njihovim pomagačima na ulozenom trudu, te Joe i Tamari Ujdur sto su ugostili Alena.

U nedjelju 18tog veljace u Klubu se održala proslava u spomen pok. Ivy Cibilich, prve zene predsjednika Kluba i njenih doprinosa za Klub. Uzivali smo u otmjenoj cajanici i zabavi koju su nam pripremili članovi Kluba. Prikupljeni doprinosi upotrebljeni su za kupnju novog klavira koji ce imati spomen pločicu sa Ivy-nim imenom. Posebne zahvale članicama Zenskog Odbora Kluba koje su organizirale ovaj lijepi događaj i financiranje ostatka troškova za kupnju klavira.

U ovim Novostima mozete procitati o raznovrsnim događajima koji ce se održati u slijedećih nekoliko mjeseci . Ujedno mozete procitati moj clanak sa planovima za Izlet U Domovinu 2018.

Nadam se da ce se veliki broj vas moci pridruziti u barem nekim događajima. Nabrojana su mjesta gdje cemo odsjesti , ukoliko ste zainteresirani rezervirati smjestaj na istim mjestima.

Jessie Seaman QSM

Recently the Team Tarara walkers were in National Park and I met one of our long-time country members in Raetihi. Jessie Seaman (nee Curach) has lived in Raetihi for over 75yrs, and is a recognised icon of the community. She worked as a radiographer at Waimarino Hospital and has always been a keen outdoors person and avid trumper. Born in Korčula in 1922, Jessie came to NZ as a 14 year old refugee. After training as a nurse she ended up in Raetihi where she at first thought "it was the last place God must have made". Raetihi and it's townsfolk took care of the young nurse, and she has been taking care of most everybody ever since. In 2008 as a mere 86 year old, Jessie was instructed to accept the Queen's Service Medal for community services, having formally declined the honour by simply saying "I don't like all that stuff". Jessie has been (and still is) a keen supporter of the Dalmatian Cultural Society, her parish of St Joseph and the Ruapehu Rugby Club. If you are ever in Raetihi, and wanting historical information about the history of former Yugoslavia, anything about NZ rugby, or any mountain track in National Park, just ask anyone in Raetihi for Jessie's address, no second name will be required!

High Tea Afternoon in Memory of naša Ivy Cibilich, First Lady President of the Society

Thank you to all of you who came along and made this a wonderful afternoon of reminiscing and celebration of the contribution Naša Ivy made to our Society in her lifetime.

Donations totalling almost $3000 were received which went towards the payment of the new Piano for the Society's Ballroom. The balance was made up by the Ladies Committee Account. This Piano will be an asset to the Society and replaces one which has served the society well in its better days.

The Tamburica Orchestra

Recently we did a count of all the instruments used by the Orchestra. Although we have a good number there are still some that are missing - probably loaned to students or players throughout the years but for some reason were never returned. If you have any of these instruments, can you please drop it off at the club on a Friday evening from 7 pm either to the Secretary's office or to Paul Marinovich in the music room - we won't growl and will just be happy to get them back !

You can also take the opportunity to rejoin the orchestra if you want - we are always looking for new players.
