Constitution, Rules and By-Laws of the Society:

NAME:

1. The Society shall be called the "Dalmatinkso Kulturno Društvo Incorporated"

REGISTERED OFFICE:

2. The Registered Office shall be at such place as the Management Committee shall from time to time determine.

OBJECTS:

3. The objects of the Society shall include those to:
 - a) To extend, foster and cultivate the cultures of all of the people from the states that made up the former Yugoslavia
 - b) To promote and foster friendship unity and co-operation between the peoples of origin from the states that made up the former Yugoslavia and those of other origins and particularly the people of New Zealand.
 - c) To organise, establish, and if thought fit, endow or subsidise bands, orchestras, choirs and folklore groups.
 - d) To organise and/or promote social functions, intellectual, sporting, educational and cultural activities, including the teaching of languages of the states that made up the former Yugoslavia and other languages.
 - e) To help poor and needy members and to visit the same in hospitals and other institutions.
 - f) To promote entertainments for the benefit of members of the Society.
 - g) To hold regular meetings at which matters of interest to the Society will be discussed.
 - h) When considered necessary to publish or assist in the publication of papers and/or periodicals dealing with matters of common interest to members of the Society and generally to issue publications to further the objects of the Society.
 - i) To affiliate with organisations whose objects are similar or considered likely to be conducive to the attainment of the Society's objects, or any of them.
 - j) To raise funds by means of subscriptions, donations, bequests, levies, loans (whether secured or unsecured) and debentures.
 - k) To accept any sum of money or property bequeathed or donated to the Society upon the terms of such bequest or donations.
 - l) To purchase, take on, lease, sub-lease, rent, hire or otherwise acquire any land and/or building(s) and to erect building(s) for the purposes of the Society and to sell, lease, sub-lease, rent, hire or otherwise dispose of upon any terms the whole of or any part of any such property and generally manage the same.
 - m) To organise, establish and if thought fit, endow or subsidise branches of the Society in any part or parts of New Zealand.
 - n) To organise, establish and if thought fit, endow or subsidise any activities within the framework of, or conducive to, the furtherance of the objects of the Society.
 - o) To do all things considered to be conducive to the attainment of these objects or any of them or to be otherwise for the benefit of its members or any of them.

Provided always that:

- I. The Society shall seek its objects free of sectarian, religious or political alignments.
- II. No object, except where its context expressly provides shall in any way be limited or restricted by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other object.
- III. The Society shall have full power to exercise any of its objects independently of any other.
